FITTING CLOSE TO INSTITUTE

The Rally Exercises Largely Attended.

Short and Inspiring Addresses by Several—The Need of Local Tax District In Every Section of County Where There Is a School House—Dr. Gordon Speaks of Duties of Committeemen—Teachers Given Car Ride.

The final day of the Teachers' Institute yesterday proved to be a most interesting one for the teachers and the exercises were especially adapted to the close of the most largely attended county institute ever held in the state. Several brief, but pointed addresses were made, following which the teachers were taken on a car ride to White Oak and Piedmont Heights, the guests of the Public Service Company and the Merchants' Association.

The last session of the institute began in the county court house at 9:30 o'clock and after talks by Prof. J. A. Matheson, director of the institute, and Mrs. J. A. Robinson, assistant, the session was broadened into a public meeting of an educational nature. A large number of committeemen, school boards and others interested in educational work were present and the session was full of inspiration to all.

County Superintendent Foust presided and made a short talk on local taxation, emphasizing on the need of better school houses and longer terms in the districts where there is no local tax. In fact the whole address was a plea to the citizens to vote a local tax if they have not done so. Prof. Foust said that it pained him to go into a school house in a district where the children, through no fault of theirs, had short terms and were compelled to study in a poorly equipped building, while nearby in a local tax district the pupils had a good building, thoroughly equipped, and long terms. Every child should have an equal chance, he said.

Mr. Charles H. Ireland, a member of the County Board of Education, was the next speaker and he emphasized the importance of reading the Bible in the school room. He also dwelt upon the necessity of having the best teacher possible. No community should be satisfied with a teacher who was no better than the citizens of that community, he said. The teacher should be right in her relation with all the standards that go to make the best citizenship. Her position is an exalted one. Mr. Ireland urged the teachers present to lift themselves up on a high plane and then seek to life their pupils up and teach them to look up towards the higher things of life.

Mrs. T. N. Sellers made a talk from the teacher's standpoint. She drew a beautiful picture of what a teacher can do in building up a community and training future men and women. It was especially inspiring to the teachers.

Dr. J. I. Foust, president of the State Normal College, was next introduced and made a talk on the work of the secondary school. So far as the elementary school of Guilford county is concerned, its work is a settled fact, he said. "I can remember twenty years ago when it was a burning question whether it would give a primary or elementary education to all the children. I think I can say that so far as that question is concerned, it is settled, and we have about settled the program of the elementary school. The purpose of the elementary school is to put in the hands of the children the tools which will enable him to be educated if he decides to go to the secondary schools or higher institutions of learning. You give the child the tools, and to a certain extent he can educate himself.

"The secondary school is the problem we have on hand today to solve as to the meaning and program of this school. The agriculturists say that the thing we should teach is agriculture. Another man more interested in the health of the people says that we should teach the people to live in a healthy manner. Another interested in domestic science says that it is absolutely worthless to produce corn and wheat on the farm if you don't cook it well. I am not discounting any of these things. I am simply trying to picture to you the unrest about the high schools. The problem for you and I is to try to give to the State of North Carolina from Guilford county an ideal high school. "There is no higher, grander work than in which the teacher is engaged. There is no grander opportunities than are offered to them. They can go out in the rural communities and become a light and inspire the children to be better than their parents have been, and make this county, and State, and nation better than we have been able to make it in the past."

Dr. Gordon, of Jamestown, was called on to speak from the committeemen's standpoint. He said he thought North Carolina was ripe for compulsory attendance in the public schools, and if he were in the legislature this year he would urge the passage of a bill compelling every parent to send their children to school between the ages of six and sixteen years.

"I feel that we committeemen often neglect our duty," he said. "The average school teacher would like for the committeemen to visit the school. Very few of us visit the public schools. If a person had a fine colt that he wanted trained, he would feel that it was to his interest to go and see how the training was getting along, and that being so I feel that the training of our children is very much more important than the training of a colt. It is our duty to see how it is being done and encourage the teachers."

It had been announced that the Woman's Betterment would elect officers at this meeting for the coming year, but, as it was getting late and the Public Service Company had offered to give the teachers a car ride, this was postponed, the meeting to be announced later.

WHISKEY PRESCRIPTIONS.

About Seven Hundred Pints Used As Medicine During August.

Elsewhere in today's paper will be found the monthly report of Chief of Police Neelley, showing the number of prescriptions issued for whiskey and giving the amount prescribed by each physician.

The number of prescriptions were 599 and about seven hundred pints of whiskey, wine and gin were prescribed. The largest amount prescribed by a single physician was 57 3/4 pints, divided among 47 prescriptions. The next largest amount was 47 pints, divided among 44 prescriptions.

The report shows that but five physicians prescribed over 30 pints, while a large majority of the physicians prescribed from 1-2 to 10 pints each.

In Municipal Court.

Three cases were disposed of in Municipal court yesterday morning, each of the defendants being charged with an assault. Jennie Hatchett was given four months in the workhouse for her offense. Lilly Greer was fined $10 and costs for using a stick. John Sanders was tried, but the evidence seemed to warrant his action in pummeling another negro and he was let off on payment of costs. All the parties are colored.

New Acquisition For Musical Faculty At G. F. College.

Prof. Henry Foote Perrin, who has been added to the musical faculty of Greensboro Female College, has arrived in the city, accompanied by his mother. He will teach piano and pipe organ. He was formerly director of music at Limestone College, Gaffney, S. C., and comes to Greensboro Female College with very flattering recommendations.

Cubs Defeat The All-Stars.

The Cubs defeated the All-Stars yesterday in a well played game, the score being 8 to 6. Beasley's pitching was the feature of the game, holding the All-Stars down to two hits. Lamb pitched good ball, but his teammates did not give him the proper support. The hitting of Murray and Sapp was noteworthy.

Announcement of Engagement.

Much interest will be felt in the following announcement as the young people are very well known and both of them deservedly popular:

"Mrs. John A. Gilmer announces the engagement of her granddaughter, Sadie Lindsay Dick, to Mr. Cummins Aiken Mehane, the wedding to take place in November."

Pythians To Eat Watermelon.

At Monday night's meeting of Greensboro Lodge, No. 80, Knights of Pythias the members will indulge in a watermelon feast, following the regular business session. All members are urged to attend and all visiting Pythians are cordially invited.

MEN'S MASS MEETING AT FRIENDS' CHURCH SUNDAY

Rev. Charles Hiatt Will Discuss Answers To Question As To What Is the Thing of Most Importance To Greensboro.

Invitations as follows have been sent out by a committee of the Friends' church in connection with the evangelistic services now being conducted at that church:

"An opinion as to the thing of most importance to the city of Greensboro at the present time having been given by a large number of our professional and business men—

"You are cordially invited to attend the services at our church next Sunday, Sept. 4, at 3 o'clock p. m., at which time Mr. Chas. E. Hiatt, of Marion, Indiana, who has come to us for a two weeks series of special meetings, now rapidly drawing to a close, will deliver an address based upon the replies as received.

"Mr. Hiatt is a broad-minded Christian gentleman, full of zeal for his chosen profession; always interpreting to the needs of the present and believing thoroughly in the old Quaker maxim that religion and business go hand in hand.

Very cordially,
"J. VAN LINDLEY,
"J. E. CARTLAND,
"W. D. MENDENHALL,
"Committee."

As will be gathered from the letter a number of the leading business and professional men have been asked their opinion as to the thing of the greatest importance to the city of Greensboro at the present time.

The Telegram is asked to request that in the various pulpits tomorrow morning attention be directed to this 3 o'clock men's mass meeting at the Friends' church.

The weather has been very inauspicious for the evangelistic services at the Friends' church, but there has nevertheless been a fair attendance and much good has been accomplished. It is expected that the series of special services will come to a close tomorrow night.

BIG TIME AT SPRAY MONDAY.

Rockingham Democrats Preparing To Give Major Stedman Rousing Reception.

The Democrats of Rockingham county are preparing to give Maj. C. M. Stedman and Gov. Kitchen a rousing reception at Spray Monday on the occasion of the Labor Day celebration, at which the first speeches of the campaign in this district will be made.

There will be big processions from the towns of Reidsville, Stoneville and Madison and it is expected that an enormous crowd will gather to hear the addresses. Parties arriving in Reidsville on train No. 8 will find conveyances at the station to take them over and they can return to Reidsville in time to take No. 35 going South. Or they can remain over night in Reidsville and hear Gov. Kitchen address the Reidsville Democracy.

A number of Greensboro people are arranging to go over and hear the addresses.

CONFEDERATE REUNION

Reduced Railroad Rates Go On Sale Tomorrow—A Number of Veterans Will Go From Here.

A number of Confederate Veterans will go from this section to the North Carolina Reunion of Confederate Veterans next week in Norfolk. The reunion commences on the sixth and lasts through the eighth. It is expected that the delegation from here will leave on the fifth.

The Southern has offered the very low rate of $5.35 for the round trip, this being less than the regular fare one way.

These tickets will be on sale the 4th, 5th, and 6th, good to return until the 14th.

Will Conduct Salisbury Fair.

Mr. Garland Daniel has leased the grounds of the Rowan Fair Association and will conduct the fair there this fall. On account of the dates of Ringling's circus the local management had decided to cut out the fair, but Mr. Daniel took action that will insure the citizens of that section an up-to-date fair. However, several departments will be omitted, owing to the lateness of the season, but special effort will be made to make the remaining features more attractive than ever. The racing will surpass all former events and the agricultural exhibits will be on an extensive scale.

WINSTON TAKES THE FIRST GAME

Allowed Only Four Champs to Reach First

Ir Featureless Game Twins Score Two Runs—Champs Played Errorless Ball—Beusse Leaves For Home—Proximity and Greensboro Team to Play Game At Cone Park Next Monday—Why Stouch Won.

Winston-Salem, Sept. 2.—A heavy rain fell in the city practically all the afternoon, but at Piedmont Park the fall was rather light, and though an intermission of ten minutes was taken during the fifth inning, the game was played through, the score being 2 to 0 in favor of the locals. Wallace for the visitors did fairly good work, but he was outclassed by Laval, who allowed only three hits. Only four Greensboro men got on bases and during the entire contest the visitors had only one man left on, the others being thrown out trying to steal. Only one Patriot reached second base.

The Twins scored two runs in the seventh. Painter led off with an infield hit. Fogarty struck out, but Laval single to left, advancing Painter to second. Tiedemann then knocked a long single to left and Painter scored. Laval stole third and was scored by Cote's single in the same general direction.

The game was featureless.

Beusse Leaves For Home.

Carlton Beusse came in from Winston last night and left on train No. 29 for his home in Athens, Ga. Beusse has been doing the brunt of the catching for the locals all the season and has given a good account of himself as a backstop. He will work for the Seaboard Railway during the winter months.

Baseball Monday.

Proximity and the Patriots will cross bats at Cone Park Monday, Labor Day. The Proximity team is a good one and they will give the tailenders a good game. Stafford and Seibert, the A. & M. battery will be imported by the Proxy team and Manager Thigpen will put a team in the field that should put up as fast a game as the average team in the league. The game will be called at 4:30 and admission will be 25 cents.

Why Tommy Stouch Won.

In answer to the question as to what was the principal reason he could give for winning the pennant this year, Manager Stouch says that he attributes his success to the fact that his men were all young men and that they were without exception free from any kind of dissipation. He says that they were easier to manage and had more ginger all through the season than any team of old heads in the league. On the Greenville team there is only one player, with the exception of the manager over 26 years of age.

Smith to Pittsburgh.

Smith, the left-hander who was released by Greensboro after he had pitched four games at the first of the season, has been drafted by the Pittsburgh team in the National league from the Jacksonville club in the South Atlantic league, where, after leaving Greensboro he pitched great ball.

BUILDING DURING FIRST QUARTER OF FISCAL YEAR.

Permits Issued For Large Number of Substantial Residences.

During the months of May, June and July, the first quarter of the fiscal year, the report of Building Inspector Milton shows that permits were issued for a number of handsome and modern residences, the average cost of each being $2,500. The total investment in new residences during the period was something over $63,000. In addition nearly $8,000 was spent in enlarging and improving residences. It is a noticeable fact in this connection that nearly all the residences were erected for the individual use of the owner.

During the quarter only about $10,000 was spent in improving business property, but it should be said that a considerable number of permits for improving business property have been issued since the end of the quarter and several permits were issued before the beginning of the quarter. During the past year more than half of the business houses on Elm street have been improved, by having new fronts installed.

The report only covers the building inside the corporate limits and it is a safe assertion that nearly the same amount was spent on the outskirts as was inside the city limits.

NURSERYMEN MEET IN GREENSBORO NEXT YEAR

Invitation Extended by Mr. O. Joe Howard Accepted.

The Association of Southern Nurserymen, who have just finished their annual convention in Knoxville, Tenn., have decided to convene in Greensboro next year. The association which includes about a hundred of the representative nurserymen of the South, from Florida to Maryland will meet in this city on the fourth Monday in August. The invitation to meet in Greensboro was extended to the convention by Mr. O. Joe Howard, of the J. Van Lindley Nursery Company, who attended the meeting.

Greensboro is an admirable place for such a convention as it is between two of the largest and best known nurseries in the country and the program that will be arranged to entertain the visiting fruit tree growers will include visits to the nearby nurseries and various other points of interest near the city.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY MORNING OF THE LATE HUGH PARKS.

Methodist Church At Franklinsville Filled To Overflowing—A Number Present From Here.

A number of Greensboro people were in Franklinsville yesterday to attend the funeral of the late Hugh Parks, among those from here being Rev. W. M. Curtis, Messrs. J. W. Scott, L. J. Brandt and G. S. Bradshaw.

The funeral was held in the Methodist church which was filled to overflowing. The services were conducted by Rev. J. C. Woosley, of Ramseur, and Rev. C. A. Wood, of Asheboro. The interment was in the graveyard of the church.

Mr. Parks was the principal owner of two cotton mills and was the wealthiest man in his section. He was 83 years old.

Mrs. Foushee To Open a Studio.

Mrs. Janie Foushee will open a studio for instruction in vocal culture in the Southern Life and Trust building next Tuesday. Mrs. Foushee is herself a most accomplished musician and has received instruction under some of the leading teachers of the country. She studied under the late Prof. Clarence Brown, R. Blinn Owen, at the New York University under Mr. Dann and at Chattanooga, New York, under Mr. Frank Croxon.

Fire Wagon Hits Ponies.

As the Hook and Ladder truck left the station yesterday afternoon to respond to the alarm the truck struck and knocked down two ponies being held in the street by a colored man. One of the ponies was skinned up considerably, but there was no serious damage, it is thought.

RALEIGH MAN TALKS SUICIDE

Even Purchases Coffin From Undertaker.

Then Disappeared and Caused No Little Excitement Until He Was Found In Intoxicated Condition—Revolver Had Been Taken From Him Earlier—Mrs. R. M. Furman Dead—Fayetteville Station.

Raleigh, Sept. 2.—Employers and friends of F. D. Overby, employed by Johnson & Johnson Co. here, scoured the city and surrounding country for him some time this morning fearing that he had committed suicide. He had told some friends he was tired of life and thought of ending all. A revolver had been taken from him and he had, apparently, been dissuaded from his rash intention. However, early this morning, he went to the undertaker's house of J. H. Brown Co. (Inc.) and purchased a coffin, giving his right name and saying it was for H. D. Overby who he represented to have died Sept. 1, out near McCullers, the funeral to be this afternoon at Winsworth church, this county. There has been no such death. He told the undertaker the man he wanted the coffin for was about his size. This was early in the morning and he was to have returned within an hour for the coffin.

Overby's brother found him during the afternoon somewhat intoxicated but by no means a suicide. He would not admit that he was the man who had purchased the coffin but he was driven by the undertaker's where Mr. Ed Brown identified him as his customer of the early morning.

The Corporation Commissioners report quite an interesting hearing at Fayetteville in connection with the hearing on the petition citizens are making for a union passenger station. It was brought out in the evidence that the passenger and freight receipts for the town aggregate fully a million dollars per year, over $200,000 of this being passenger receipts. The Raleigh & Southport Co. is pleading that it has a practically new passenger station ample for its business. On the other hand the Atlantic Coast Line is wanting to make extensive improvements on the present station instead of building a new one out and out.

Mrs. Furman, widow of the late Hon. Robert M. Furman, died last night in Washington, D. C., where she has lived for several years and the remains will be brought here tomorrow morning for interment by the side of her distinguished husband, who was state auditor and a newspaper man of wide reputation, having died here several years ago while editing The Morning Post.

TO PLAN CAMPAIGN.

County Democratic Candidates and Advisory Committee Meet Today.

The Guilford County Democratic candidates and the advisory committee of the county executive committee will meet this morning at 11 o'clock in the court house for the purpose of discussing the plans to be carried out during the campaign and to name dates for the speaking in the several places in the county.

County Chairman Sherrill stated last night that the canvass would be a thorough one and a date would probably be fixed for a speech in every precinct in the county. All the details will be worked out this morning. The members of the advisory board are Messrs. R. R. King, R. A. Gilmer, A. W. Cooke, Ed B. Wheeler, Robert Brackett.

A Bible Conference.

A Bible Conference will be held at Asheboro Street Baptist church, commencing Monday night, Sept. 5. The following subjects will be discussed: 1. The Spirit Filled Life. 2. Evangelism. 3. The Church. 4. Achievements In History. 5. Missions. Rev. R. G. Kendrick will deliver the first address. Public cordially invited.

WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK BODIES.

Kidney Diseases Cause Half the Common Aches and Pains of Greensboro People.

As one weak link weakens a chain, so weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final break down. Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys, and when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers from the excess of uric acid circulating in the blood.

Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills come, and there is an ever increasing tendency towards diabetes and fatal Bright's disease. There is no real help for the sufferers except kidney help.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys and cures every kidney ills. No need to take the statement of someone living far away as evidence.

Here's a case right in this locality. M. C. Foster, Graham, N. C., says: "I suffered from almost constant pains across the small of my back and I had but little ambition or energy. Doan's Kidney Pills were so highly recommended that I procured a box and used them as directed. They benefited me in every way and for that reason I recommend them to other sufferers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

MEN ARE POWERLESS

To Fight Against Disease Unless They Strike at the Underlying Cause.

To treat Dandruff, and Failing Hair, with irritants or oils on which a parasitic germ will prosper, is like scooping water from the ocean to prevent the tide from rising. You cannot accomplish a satisfactory cure without having a right understanding of the fundamental causes of the trouble.

You must kill the Dandruff Germ. Newbro's Herpicide does this because it is specially made to do that very thing. When the germ is removed, the hair has no choice but to resume healthy growth and beauty.

"TEDDY" AND "JIM"

Both in Strenuous Training for the Approaching Contest at Saratoga. New York World.

Road work continues to be the chief feature of the training camps of both "Terrible Teddy" and "Sunny Jim" in their preparations for the great Saratoga slantfest for the diamond Boss belt of New York. "Teddy" wound up a remarkable run to Horrors Kan., yesterday, when he held the train till the locomotive coughed and expired. Just to show how his jaw development stood—and this experts declare to be his greatest asset—"Terrible Teddy" munched a peck of spikes, bit a rail into 16 pieces and then bent a crowbar over his muscular arm.

"If it's a fight he's looking for he'll get it," said "Terrible Teddy," with such an awesome display of teeth that the inhabitants fled.

"Sunny Jim" who had completed a 100-mile tramp (in a motorcar) that landed him at Joplin, Mo., on being told of "Terrible Teddy's" statement made a big hit with the natives by replying: "He'll have to show me."

"Sunny Jim" isn't merely a pugilist—he's a philosopher and a student. One of his books was found with this quotation heavily underscored:

Let him not boast who puts the armor on.

But he who takes it off the battle done.

"Them's my sentiments," said "Jim," and there was loud applause from his trainers.

On being told that "Terrible Teddy's" daily amusement had taken the form of a wrestling match with a bear or two for the benefit of the spectators and moving-picture men "Sunny Jim" frowned and said: "Hub—what of it? I box every day with Tim Woodruff and one of his fiercest waistcoats. And I've got Wadsworth to box with for speed. I'll be all there and won't have to be nursed along under an umbrella when the day comes. See?"

There's one source of anxiety among "Sunny Jim's" handlers, and that is the work of reducing him to proper form in the matter of flesh. He's on a strict diet. He is not allowed to attend more than 20 banquets a week, and then the food prescribed limits him to clams, oysters, terrapin, salmon, pate de foie gras, mallard duck, guinea hens, potatoes, plums, prunes, watermelons, Roquefort cheese, raisins, nuts, cock-tails, champagne and canteloupe a la Schley. Aside from that he is living very abstemiously.

No such restrictions surround "Terrible Teddy." He can eat anything. The only restraint is to prevent him from constantly biting off more than he can chew. It's a trick he seems to have learned in the jungle.

"Terrible Teddy" was much amused yesterday on receiving a call from that other great Afro-American battler, "Smiling Jack" Johnson. "Teddy" invited him to stay for dinner.

CLEANLY WOMAN.

Erroneously Thinks by Scouring Her Scalp That She Cures Dandruff.

Cleanly woman has an erroneous idea that by scouring the scalp, which removes the dandruff scale, she is curing the dandruff. She may wash her scalp every day, and yet have dandruff her life long, accompanied by falling hair, too. The only way in the world to cure dandruff is to kill the dandruff germ, and there is no hair preparation that will do that but Newbro's Herpicide. Herpicide by killing the dandruff germ, leaves the hair free to grow as healthy Nature intended. Destroy the cause you remove the effect. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide. AMUSEMENTS

"The Soul Kiss," which is booked for an engagement at the Grand on Wednesday, Sept. 7th with a special matinee, in its new garb of rich novelties, songs and dances, has proven, it is said, to be one of the most entertaining and substantial successes of recent theatrical history; in fact, nothing has achieved a greater triumph than this dainty, clean, inoffensive offering of Harry B. Smith and Maurice Levi. The tunefulness of "The Soul Kiss" is amply attested by the prevalence of the new song numbers, in all the prominent hotels and cafes throughout the entire country. The production under the direction of Julian Mitchell, who is considered the most successful musical comedy stage-producer in America. His productions are known to abound in novel stage pictures, colorful groupings of girls, beautiful ensembles and dainty dance numbers, executed by a corps de ballet of twenty.

Two Innocents

By DOROTHEA HALE

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

"Pa," said Mrs. Hathaway, "I think Howard Crook and Effie would make a good match."

"If you wish them to mate don't let them know it. Nothing keeps young people apart like trying to bring them together."

"I've no hope of their getting together. They're both so bashful they don't dare look at each other."

"Let 'em alone, and if they have a natural attraction for each other they will make it up in time. Better still, tell them that not on any account shall they fall in love, that there is a special reason why they must not marry."

"Nonsense! They're too bashful to get together anyway. I don't care to put anything else between 'em to keep 'em apart."

But Mrs. Hathaway noticed that the young people needed some spice to move them toward each other, and she concluded to try her husband's plan. She called her daughter to her one day and told her that she was not to take any interest in Howard, since on no account could she marry him. She would have said the same to Howard, but it is not a very pleasant thing to tell a young man that he must not think of marrying one's daughter, especially when that young man has shown no predilection for her. When Mrs. Hathaway had given Effie this bit of information she told her husband what she had done. At the time he was shaving.

"Pa," she said, "I've warned Effie."

"About what?"

"Not to fall in love with Howard."

"How did she take it?"

"She acted kind of funny."

"What do you mean by that?"

"She caught her breath."

"That would indicate that she has already cast covetous eyes upon him."

"You mean that the poor child is so young and innocent that the very mention of her falling in love puts her in a flutter. You must remember that Effie's only sixteen, and Howard is but nineteen—two children. We ought to be ashamed of ourselves to talk about marrying to either of them."

"You mean you ought to be ashamed of yourself. I've had nothing to do with it."

"You know just as well as I that when Howard comes of age he'll have $100,000."

"Well, my dear, I hope you'll get him for her. I'm going downtown."

A few days later conversation on the same subject was reopened by Mrs. Hathaway. Mr. Hathaway was reading his evening paper.

"Pa," she said, "those two children make me tired."

"What's the matter now?"

"Oh, yesterday I told them they might take Bob and the box wagon and go for a drive together. Effie said she didn't like driving, and Howard said he had a baseball match on hand. You needn't tell me that two young things like them would decline an offer to be together for a whole afternoon if they weren't indifferent to each other."

"I thought you said it was bashfulness."

"Well, I don't know but it is. When I told them they might go Effie turned red and Howard looked kind of queer. I mean they looked as if they wanted to, but didn't dare."

"Well, my dear, if you can't manage them I can't."

And Mr. Hathaway went upstairs to bed.

Their bashfulness or whatever it was seemed to increase instead of diminish. The "children" didn't seem to get together at all. If Mrs. Hathaway went into the room where they were she would find Howard reading a book at one end of the room, while Effie would be cutting out pictures at the other end. Then she would wonder if the child would ever grow to be a woman. If Howard was ever in the house to a meal he and Effie would sit him on either side of the table, never venturing a remark except to one of the older people. On one occasion Howard said something and Effie corrected him. Howard averred that he was right about it. Effie offered to bet him. She was thinking what to bet him when her father, winking at her mother, said:

"Bet him a kiss, Effie."

Effie colored to the roots of her hair and Howard looked as if he were going to bolt.

"There," said Mrs. Hathaway to her husband, "you've spoiled everything. Those two children will never be easy in each other's company again."

The next time Mrs. Hathaway had anything to say to her husband on this subject—it was but three days later—her tone was changed.

"Pa," she said, "I must have some money."

"How much do you want, my dear?"

"I think about $500 will do, though really I ought to have more."

"What is it to go for?"

"Why, you see, Effie hasn't had anything new for a long while and she hasn't a respectable costume, to her name."

"It isn't for a trousseau, is it?"

"Yes, it is."

"You don't mean those two children are engaged?"

"No, I don't."

"Well, what do you mean?"

"I mean they've been married ever since I first spoke to you about them."

FREE TO YOU—MY SISTER

Free to You and Every Sister Suffering from Woman's Ailments.

I am a woman. I know woman's sufferings. I will mail, free of any charge, my book, WOMAN'S OWN MEDICAL ADVISER, with full instructions to any sufferer from woman's ailments. I want to tell all women about this cure—yes, my reader, for yourself, your daughter, your mother, or your sister. I want to tell you how to cure yourselves at home without the help of a doctor. Men cannot understand women's sufferings. What we women know from experience, we know better than any doctor. I know that my home treatment is safe and sure cure for Leucorrhoea or White Discharge, Menstrual Disorders or Falling of the Womb, Pains, Scanty or Painful Periods, Urinary or Urinary Tumors, or Growths; also pains in head, back and bowels, bearing down feelings, nervousness, creeping feeling up the spine, malaise, desire to cry, hot flashes, weakness, kidney and bladder troubles where caused by weakness peculiar to our sex.

I want to send you a complete ten day's treatment entirely free to prove to you that you can cure yourself at home, easily, quickly and surely. Remember, that it will cost you nothing to give the treatment a complete trial; and if you are cured, you will have a complete cure.

Wherever you live, I can refer you to ladies of your own locality who know and will gladly tell you that this WOMAN'S OWN MEDICAL ADVISER really cures all women's diseases, and makes women well, strong, plump and robust. Just send me your address, and the free ten day's treatment is yours, also the book. Write to-day, as you may not see this offer again. Address: MRS. M. SUMMERS, Box H - Notre Dame, Ind., U. S. Mr. Roosevelt is such a pronounced insurgent that pretty soon we expect to see progressive insurgents and conservative insurgents.

According to the Democratic paper in his home town Mr. Blair, Republican candidate for Congress, is a clean man and this being the case the district is not in danger, no matter what happens.—Durham Herald.

Yes, but a district wants something more than a clean man. It wants a clean man who is also able, a clean man who is also capable of making himself felt in the halls of Congress. If every clean man in a Congressional district was suited to service as a Congressman, there would be many times more candidates than there are and there are rather many as it is.

The Telegram's classified columns get results. The other day a gentleman advertised a slightly used buggy for sale. In ten hours after the ad. appeared he telephoned to take the ad out as he was pestered with replies. Yesterday morning a firm advertised a second hand roller top desk for sale. They had a reply by 8 o'clock yesterday morning and sold the desk to a party who applied a short while afterward. The fact is, The Telegram would get more money out of its classified ads, if they didn't act so promptly. They undoubtedly afford a real opportunity to the advertiser who cannot afford to take large display space.

The Raleigh Caucasian thus defines the much discussed "local self government" plank in the Republican State platform:

That whenever and wherever the rule of the people has been abridged or denied by the Democratic ring, or by any one else, that then and there the Republican party will restore to the people the right to manage their own affairs. This is what the Republican party means by local self government and it means nothing less than this.

It will be observed that the Caucasian doesn't go into detail. It does not say, as it might say in view of all the circumstances, whether in its opinion and in the purview of the noted plank "the rule of the people was abridged" when State-wide prohibition was adopted. The Caucasian has not defined the plank, for it has not mentioned one single practical application of the plank.

Roosevelt's platform, recently announced, is pretty much the same as Bryan has been advocating for years. The trouble about it is the same thing that was the trouble with Mr. Bryan's platform—there's too much of it. The American people don't want to reform themselves at one full swoop. They want to do it a little at a time so that they can make sure they are right before going ahead. Just now the great problem is the tariff problem and if the nation could get it thoroughly worked out in the course of the next year or two it could feel that it had been reasonably industrious. To go back to the similarity between the Roosevelt and the Bryan platforms, the Columbia State says:

In Kansas on Wednesday Colonel Roosevelt "gave out" his platform with its eighteen little planks. The Colonel may insure to his heart's content but there is really no need to call old things by new names. About 15 of the planks be appropriate belong to the Democratic party, and several of them were made familiar to the people by Mr. Bryan.

Former Congressman B. F. Grady has a communication in The Telegram this morning that is worthy of attention. His words touching the duty of the intelligent patriot are like apples of gold in pictures of silver. Truly the most binding of civic obligations upon a man is "to study the tendencies of present governmental policies and give his voice and vote to the political party which he believes is advocating the measures which may bring the best results to him, to his neighbors and to his posterity." Because a certain party in a certain limited sphere seems partial to young or old men or seems in error in this, that or the other particular, is no sign at all that the party as a whole is not better than the opposing party. The fact is that there are good men in both of the great parties and good planks in the platforms of both. But we believe that the measures advocated by the Democratic party are those best calculated to bring the greatest good to the greatest number of people and that the claim of the Democratic party to the support of the unbiased mind is a claim not to be lightly set aside.

SOME OF OUR YOUNG PEOPLE NEED A FISHING TRIP

Then, Says Mr. Grady, They Would Be Enabled To See Further Than the Pie Counter.

Mr. Editor: I read with much interest, in the News and Observer, what you said a few days ago about a young Mr. Groome, who has recently made the discovery that the young men of the country who are looking for places at the "pie counter," should join the Republican party; and it reminded me of a story I used to hear about a young man in Duplin. His home was about twenty miles south of Neuse river, and having never been a mile from his home, he gladly accepted an invitation to go with some neighbors on a fishing trip to the Neuse during the dead season. When he returned, he walked into the house and called to his father: "Dad, I didn't know that this world was half so big. When I got down to the Neuse, it looked just as big over on the other side as it does from here."

Couldn't you get up a fishing trip, and carry some of your young people beyond the "pie counter," and enable them to see that the duty which the intelligent patriot recognizes as the most binding of civic obligations is to study the tendencies of present governmental policies and give his voice and vote to the political party which he believes is advocating the measures which may bring the best results to him, to his neighbors, and to his posterity?

Very respectfully, &c.,
B. F. GRADY.

Clinton, N. C., Sept. 1, 1910.

THE FARMERS UNION.

Dr. H. Q. Alexander Will Address Special Meeting This Morning.

A special meeting of the Guilford County Farmers' Union will be held in the main auditorium of the State Normal and Industrial College this morning at 10:30 o'clock, at which time Dr. H. Q. Alexander, of Charlotte, president of the State Union, will make an address. A large number of the members from all sections of the county will be in attendance.

At the conclusion of the address the farmers will have a picnic dinner in Peabody Park, following which they will be shown over the farm and college buildings. Several members of the faculty will accompany the farmers on their tour of inspection to give any information they may desire.

The county union now has a membership of from twelve to fifteen hundred and this number is steadily increasing. The organization is proving to be of considerable benefit to the members and farmers in general. Every member is urged to attend the meeting at the college this morning and hear Dr. Alexander.

Conquered the Orchestra.

In his early days Herr Arthur Nikisch, the famous conductor, was appointed to conduct a performance of "Tannhauser" at the Leipzig opera. He was but a young chorus master at the time, and the orchestra absolutely refused to play under so youthful a conductor. They were only induced to do so when a director said that if they were of the same mind after the overture had been played they could then and there hand in their resignations. The overture was a veritable triumph for Nikisch, and with profuse apologies the orchestra offered him their congratulations.—London Tit-Bits.

County Board of Education.
The regular monthly meeting of the Guilford County Board of Education will be held this morning in the office of County Superintendent Thos. R. Foust. A number of matters of routine nature will be attended to.

Mrs. N. C. Weatherly Will Do a Strictly Cash Business.

After September 15, Mrs. Weatherly will discontinue the credit business and sell strictly for cash on delivery. This step will be of mutual benefit, for it is evident that if no money is put out for stationery, postage, collectors per cent and no lost accounts, she can sell goods much less than any house running on the credit system. Her goods will be marked for cash and sold for cash only. Mrs. Weatherly wishes to take the opportunity to thank the ladies for their liberal patronage and solicit a continuance of the same under the new cash system.

LUNATIC'S BRIDE COLLAPSES.

Madman's 24-Hour Romance Suddenly Ends.

Washington, Sept. 1.—When informed today that she was the wife of a lunatic, who, after escaping from an asylum, had wooed, won and married her within 24 hours, Mrs. Virginia Strouse Frank today collapsed and her relatives, astounded at the wild story unfolded by the police, announced that they would bring action at once to annul the marriage.

Edwin Frank, formerly a private in the United States Army, escaped from the guards at the Government Hospital for the Insane here Tuesday morning and immediately hired a taxicab and took expensive quarters at the New Willard Hotel, announcing that he was an army captain just back from the Philippines.

Later he "purchased" a big red touring car and started to enjoy himself. He succeeded in making an appointment by telephone with Miss Strouse for an auto ride. They "did the town," and then visited Chevy Chase and went to Baltimore for late luncheon; dropped in at a matinee and dined at the Hotel Belvedere.

On the way home Frank proposed and was accepted. A mad search for a license clerk in Washington failed and they went to Rockville, Md., where, after arousing the officials, they were married at 3 o'clock yesterday morning.

Returning to the New Willard, a wedding breakfast, upon which no expense was spared, was served to the "Captain" and his bride in their suite. Frank then took the girl home, while he "kept an important appointment at the War Department."

The police say that he went to the garage and, it is alleged that he gave a worthless check for $85 in payment for the auto and presented a similar check for $15 to the chauffeur.

Frank then hired another auto and took his bride to the American League ball game. They were sitting in a private box when detectives quietly entered and placed him under arrest. He told his bride to go home and wait for him. Upon information from the Government hospital, Frank was placed in jail and today was sent back to the asylum.

He was stationed at Fort MacPherson, Ga., when he was pronounced insane. He enlisted last November in New York City, where his address was given as 213 West One Hundred and Twenty-second street. It was stated at the hospital that Frank had shown great improvement lately and that it was expected that he would be released soon. For this reason he was given privileges which resulted in his escape. It is said that relatives in New York had sent him money, which was used by him to carry out his plans.

Don't Break Down.

Severe strains on the vital organs, like strains on machinery, cause breakdowns. You can't over-tax stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or nerves without serious danger to yourself. If you are weak or run-down, or under strain of any kind, take Electric Bitters, the matchless, tonic medicine. Mrs. J. E. Van de Sande, of Kirkland, Ill., writes: "That I did not break down, while enduring a most severe strain, for three months, is due wholly to Electric Bitters." Use them and enjoy health and strength. Satisfaction positively guaranteed. 50c at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

When a woman gets a divorce her husband may be justified in complaining that she has taken his name in vain.

The Gratitude of Elderly People. Goes out to whatever helps give them ease, comfort and strength. Foley's Kidney Pills cure kidney and bladder disease promptly, and give comfort and relief to elderly people. Holton Drug Co.

Some men are born great, some acquire greatness, and about one in a million has greatness thrust upon him.

Two Short Words.

"The best, well describes the satisfaction every user feels when he tries Vick's Croup and Pneumonia Salve for his head or chest, cold on his croupy child. It is a comfort, a cure and a joy. Try a jar and get your money back if not pleased."

A Long Journey.

"How large is the apartment house you live in?" "Well, I don't remember the exact dimensions," replied Mr. Flatson; "but it's so big that when we asked the janitor for heat on Sunday morning steam didn't get around to the radiator till the next Thursday."—Washington Star.

Have You Ever Said: "I don't see how all the Magazines live?"

Undoubtedly you have. Probably you have often stood before some news stand and wondered what magazines to buy. There are a lot of magazines. Most of them are mighty good and most of them live because they are good.

But there's one magazine that not only lives but GROWS. There are fifteen or more good reasons for this in every issue. These reasons are its "unbeatable" features—the special articles obtained at enormous cost—the best fiction in the world—and its powerful, sincere editorial purpose.

The September number for example: Every feature is a big one. It is actually stuffed with big, vital news—information that you ought to have, articles that explain things, stories that every member of your family will read with intense delight. Here are some of the extra good things:

Splendid Fiction. Stories—fine ones—by Arthur Stringer, Alice Brown, Mary Heaton Vorse, George Fitch and John Fleming Wilson.

"The Tooth Tinkers"—An account by Roy L. McCardell of "Painless Parkers" and their swindles.

"The Czar of Footwear"—Startling facts—all brand new—about the Shoe Machinery Trust, by Judson C. Welliver.

"In Reno Riotous"—A great story of the Johnson-Jeffries fight, by Harris Merton Lyon, filled with personality, crowded with local color, and illustrated just right.

The magazine that not only lives but grows is the magazine that is giving to the country "Peary's Own Story," a $50,000 feature; it is the magazine that is publishing the first English translation in America of M. Rostand's world famous drama "Chantecler." It is "the Best Magazine in America" and it is called

GENUINE ECZEMA REMEDY

New Remedy That Cures Eczema Quickly.

Howard Gardner has sold dozens of jars of Hokara in the last few weeks, and although he offered to refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied purchaser, not one jar was returned.

While this is surprising in itself, yet the most marvelous thing is the reports of chronic cases of eczema that have been cured by this simple skin food. People who have suffered with scales, scabs and even bleeding itching have found relief in Hokara.

No matter where the eczema, pimples or other breaking out occurs, whether on the face, hands, legs or body, the application of Hokara will give quick relief, and even the worst or most chronic cases will be cured in a short time.

You can buy a liberal-sized jar today at the very low price of 25c and with every package goes a guarantee to refund the money if it is not satisfactory. Larger size 50c.

If the skin trouble is caused by impure blood or if the bowels are inactive, use Hokara Blood Tablets. They cool and cleanse the blood and regulate the bowels in a natural way.

THE

INSURANCE MEN TAKING NOTICE

Our last bulletin told of how one of the policy-holders of the Prudential Insurance Company living in Detroit, Mich., Mrs. D. R. Johnston, of 109 Jones street, was bedridden with Bright's Disease and death was expected when she was put on Renal Compound. She made a fine recovery and saved the payment of a loss. This resulted in another policy-holder of the Prudential Ins. Co. in the same city, who was nearly down and out with Bright's Disease, being put on the treatment. At last advises this case, too, was going right.

We now have a letter from a Sacramento man in which he says: "I am in the life insurance business and once in a while the Doctor has to 'pass up' a prospect. Since I know that your Compound is a wonder, why can't I put these people on it and fit them for examination. I will say that I may present you with a bill for $6,000.00 for the praise I have given your Compound. He is not the first party who has seen this opportunity. One of the State officials of Nevada came to see us and outlined a proposition to establish an insurance company to insure the lives of people having Bright's Disease and Diabetes, charging double the ordinary rates and putting them on this treatment. Numbers have been fitted for insurance, although some of them were actually in extremis. For instance, in our pamphlet will be found the case of Mrs. R. Lester Bell, of Auburn, N. Y., who was in the Auburn Hospital and was expected to die during the week when put on Fulton's Renal Compound. One year from that time she passed for life insurance.

The case of Chas. F. Wacker, the 6th street merchant of San Francisco, also comes to mind in this connection. He did not think he could live but a few months, and was nearly down and out with diabetes when put on Fulton's Diabetic Compound. He later passed for $5,000.00 life insurance.

An interesting fact in Wacker's case was that a bereavement set up a nervous condition that caused the disease to reappear and he was very much discouraged, due to the fear that he had not been cured. However, he went on the Compound again and made the second recovery and now looks like an athlete. And this was all several years ago, showing that the results are real.

We are pleased to see the Insurance people sitting up and taking notice. The large Insurance Companies will ultimately realize that they can save hundreds of thousands of dollars by having their agents advise policy-holders who have these diseases of the genuineness of this treatment. Moreover, it is humane.

For Bright's Disease, Fulton's Renal Compound is the one used. For Diabetes, Fulton's Diabetic Compound. It can be had in your city at Farriss-Klut Drug Co.

Literature mailed free. Address John J. Fulton Co., 645 Battery street, San Francisco, Ca. We desire to hear from and advise with every case not making the usual recovery.

COULD YOU BE AN ACTRESS?

Rose Stahl Has a Good Sense Test for Stage Applicants.
Chicago Tribune.

"Whenever a girl comes to me and asks, 'Can I be an actress?'" says Rose Stahl, appearing this week at the Chicago Opera House in "The Chorus Lady," "I always make her sit down and enjoy herself and get acquainted before I answer. We sit at tea or we go for a ride on the avenue, or to a matinee. By the time she leaves I can whisper in her ear: 'By all means go on' or 'Don't try the stage,' and feel that I have fairly answered her question.

"If managers would follow this policy of watching a girl or listening to the parts she has played or giving her a piece to declaim, there would be fewer failures. For it is what is latent in a woman that makes her successful on the stage. She must not only be comely, but she must have vitality—be bubbling with life. The one big thing that makes your success on the stage is lots of vitality—life. If you have that, go on the stage; if you haven't, stay off."

The Governor's Quick Wit.

While talking to a former governor of Illinois, who was noted for the quickness of his wit, an English tourist spoke with special fervor of a sight he had seen in another state.

"I attended a Sunday service for the inmates of the state prison," he said, "and I learned that of the 208 persons now confined there all but twelve voluntarily attend religious services held in the prison chapel twice each Sunday."

"Most extraordinary," said the governor musingly. "I am sorry to say it is not so with us. But then," he added soberly, "in Illinois, you see, most of the respectable people do not come to prison."—Lippincott's.

Brown and Jones were having their usual stroll and had just had a few minutes' conversation with Robinson, who was accompanied by his wife. After they had gone on some little distance Brown said to Jones:

"Did you notice that Mrs. Robinson never said a word?"

"Oh, yes," said Jones. "You see, she's deaf and dumb."

"Lucky chap is Robinson. But I suppose she can talk with her fingers?" asked Brown.

"I think so," replied Jones, "for Robinson hasn't a dozen hairs left on his head."

"Yes, a big one."

"What's he doing these days?"

"He has become interested in settlement work."

"Well, that ought to keep him occupied for awhile: he owed everybody."

WIND AND NERVS.

Effects of Breezes From the East, West and Northwest.

The east winds hug the earth closely and gather moisture, dust and bacteria. They are cold and humid, altogether forming an enervating influence on human and animal life and rendering it susceptible to the disease germs which the winds carry and disseminate.

The cool, pure northwest winds come from a region of dry, highly electrified air where ozone exists in comparatively large quantities. They are invigorating. The framework of nerves in the human being is like a delicate electrical apparatus, the nerves being the wires and the brain and ganglia receiving and distributing centers.

Every one knows that a telephone works better on a clear, dry day than on a wet, muggy one. The moist atmosphere lessens vitality. The nerve wires grow flaccid and heavy. The messages become confused. Hence low spirits, melancholia, distorted mental outlook, faulty assimilation, and disease.

The opposite effects flow from the northwest winds. The west and northwest winds keep the mucous membranes of the body in good working order. The coating of moisture which is always present with the east wind disappears. Absence of any wind if long continued has a bad effect on the human body and mind.

A prolonged calm means lack of ventilation on a great scale. The winds serve to mix in normal proportions the gases which compose the atmosphere, and in this way they are conducive to health up to a certain point. Beyond about twenty miles an hour their influence begins to be unfavorable.—Chicago Tribune.

A Reliable Medicine—NOT A NARCOTIC

Mrs. F. Marti, St. Joe, Mich., says Foley's Honey and Tar saved her little boy's life. She writes: "Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar in which I have great faith. It cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells, and he got well in a short time. Foley's Honey and Tar has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house." The ball player doesn't make a hit with the fan unless he first makes one with a bat.

Mrs. Jacob Wilmert, Lincoln, Ill., found her way back to perfect health. She writes: "I suffered with kidney trouble and backache and my appetite was very poor at times. A few weeks ago I got Foley's Kidney Pills and gave them a fair trial. They gave me great relief, so continued till now I am again in perfect health." Holton Drug Co.
